1. During the past winter and spring months, the Albanians have begun to clear their frontier area bordering on Yugoslavia of all trees. This area extends from Podgori to Alarup (sic) and in the vicinity of Leshnice and Barova (sic). In the Tushemisht area, the cutting of trees is still in progress. These measures are apparently being undertaken to assure better control of the frontier.
2. Albanian frontier units are deployed in the general area between Kolabake (sic - Kalabakut Mountain?) and Bibers. In the area northeast of Peshkopi two new wooden block houses have been built alongside the existing block houses.
